

Albert Einstein Academy Receives Funding to “Go to Africa”

Albert Einstein Academy has been awarded a grant by the Delaware Division of the Arts to support the school’s theme for the year: “Einstein Goes to Africa.” African storyteller, TAHIRA, met with AEA teachers on Friday, January 15 to prepare for her 10-day Artist in Residency which will begin March 5. The residency will culminate with a student performance for the community at AEA’s Curriculum Celebration on March 18, at 7 pm. Delaware Division of the Arts is a state agency dedicated to nurturing and supporting the arts in Delaware, in partnership with the National Endowment for the Arts.

AEA families, alumni and community friends are cordially invited to attend the March 18th Curriculum Celebration at 7 pm at the Siegel JCC. The Celebration will feature the storytelling performance by the Albert Einstein Academy students.

Albert Einstein Academy is the Brandywine Valley’s premiere Jewish Day School. Serving Delaware and Pennsylvania students from Kindergarten through sixth grade, Albert Einstein Academy is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, and is a constituent of the Jewish Federation of Delaware. For more information about the school, call Debbie Nachlis, Director of Admissions and Development, at (302)478-5026, ext. 118, or visit us at www.aeacademy.org

Pictured above are AEA Teachers Karen Bradley, Karen Moss, and Diane Fretwell along with African Storyteller TAHIRA.